

Our Vision

Five years ago, I was a chicken egg ready to be hatched,
Five years ago, I was a grain of sand on a beach,
Five years ago, I was a little flower near a house,
Five years ago, I was a rainbow in the crystal, clear sky,
Five years ago, I was a blooming flower in the middle of a field,
Five years ago, I was a flower slowly growing its petals on a farm,
Five years ago, I was a small spec of a diamond in a cave,
Five years ago, I was a puppy playing in the house.

Now, I am volcano about to erupt,
Now, I am lion because when you come next to me I roar,
Now, I am a cheetah because I run fast,
Now, I am a Pomeranian extremely soft,
Now, I am a cloud in the sky,
Now, I am classic Mercedes driving through the grass,

In 10 years time, I will be a chicken laying eggs,
In 10 years time, I will be a whole pepperoni pizza straight from dominos,
In 10 years time I will be a plate of chocolate cake waiting at the table,
In 10 years time I will be a fast cheetah running through the South American forest,
In 10 years time, I will be a Lamborghini driving on the road,
In 10 years time, I will be a radio playing in a car.
