

Our Vision

Five years ago, I was a new phone with no apps
Five years ago, I was an empty sea with no people swimming
Five years ago, I was a shiny, amazing racing car
Five years ago, I was a tiny plant waiting to be watered
Five years ago, I was an empty book that no one read
Five years ago, I was a slow car waiting to be filled with petrol
Five years ago, I was a little slow Mercedes waiting to be built
Five years ago, I was a brown puppy learning tricks
Five years ago, I was empty album with no photos

Now I am a rainbow reaching for the pot of gold
Now I am a book with few pages but I am waiting to be read
Now I am a tiny car waiting to be driven
Now I am a fluffy, white cloud that makes people smile
Now I am the sun appearing from behind a cloud
Now I am an extremely fast car that has small, shiny wheels
Now I am a sweet tangerine with no seeds inside but leaves on the outside
Now I am a strong tree standing proudly

In the future, I will be a tasty burger with all the trimmings
In the future, I will be a water bottle quenching people's thirst
In the future, I will be an umbrella protecting my family and people
In the future, I will be a car nearly at full speed
In the future, I will be a PS5 entertaining people
In ten years time, I will be a dog who can bark loudly
In ten years time, I will be a bottle full of goodness
In the future, I will be a Lamborghini that is speedy
In the future, I will be a cloud full of rain ready to spread my thunder
In the future, I will be a shiny, slithering snake with my own freedom

By Berners-Lee Class