

Our Vision

Five years ago, I was a seed waiting to grow into a strong plant.

Five years ago, I was a picture book full of colours.

One year ago, I was a speedy car going down the motorway.

Five years ago, I was my dad's little princess and I still am.

Three years ago, I was a curious cat trying to find out who I am.

Three years ago, I was as curious as a cat in a new home.

Five years ago, I was as feisty as a lion in a cage.

Two years ago, I was a pencil waiting to be sharpened.

A year ago, I had a golden heart and I will always have one.

Today, I am a shining star beaming in the sky.

Today, I am a golden dog excited to learn new tricks at school.

Today, I am a mysterious magician trying to fulfil my dreams.

Today, I am a dolphin jumping with joy.

Today, I am a legendary Lamborghini trying to find his shiny rims.

Today, I am shiny star that makes people happy.

Today, I am a stiflingly hot Lamborghini engine starting to melt away.

Today, I am a basketball beaming through the hoop.

Today, I am a flying and I will strive until I reach the top.

Today, I am a butterfly trying to escape my unknown world.

Today, I am a flower waiting to bloom.

In twenty years, I will be a powerful Porsche that zooms down the road to my dreams.

In three years, I will be a speeding sports car racing towards a finish.

In fourteen years, I will be a nurse helping everyone in a hospital.

In seven years, I will be a shooting star striving for my dreams.

In ten years, I will be in the premier league gliding through the team.

In thirteen years, I will be a horse riding through the forest.

In twenty years, I will have a rainbow family.
